FOR RELEASE At Will

William M. Milliken, Director of The Cleveland Museum of Art, announces the appointment of Margaret F. Marcus as Curatorial Research Assistant. Mrs. Marcus, a distinguished scholar, is a specialist in Oriental as well as other fields of art. She is well-known for her valuable books, "Period Flower Arrangements," "Masterpieces of Flower Painting" and "Painting of the Baroque Era" and for her articles on art objects reproduced on Japanese postage stamps.

At the same meeting Barbara J. Shissler was named Editorial Assistant. A native of Roanoke, Virginia, Mrs. Shissler came to the Museum two years ago. She is an alumna of Smith College and Western Reserve University.

Judith M. Marsh becomes Assistant in Publicity. Mrs. Marsh studied at Connecticut College for Women and Western Reserve University and has been in the Publicity Department for three years.

Two preparators were appointed. Joseph Alvarez, long-time member of the staff, was elected Curatorial Preparator. In this capacity he will maintain Museum collections, restoring damaged objects, paintings and frames.

Frederick L. Hollendonner was named Preparator in the Extension Department. He will design layouts for exhibits circulated throughout Cleveland schools and libraries, and will repair damaged objects in the lending collection. A promising young artist, his paintings have frequently won First Prize in recent May Shows. He holds a degree from the Cleveland Institute of Art.

Carl Frank, who came to the Museum twenty-two years ago at the time of the Great Lakes Exposition, becomes Foreman of the Utility Department. ~~XXXXXXXXXXXXXX~~
